

The Grimm Brothers: Literary Reception and Mediation

A Job Orientation Offer at the SEP

How does the unit work?

Learn about the structure and about different types of tasks used in the self-study unit. Check what skills you need. Create a blog to write while working on the unit.

How is literature mediated?

Understand what museums are and how they present their objects, how tourists tick, what functions tour guides have - and why excitement is of key importance.

Visit! Explore! Listen! Watch! Observe!

Now it is time for the hands-on part of the unit: visit museums and go on guided tours, and take note of how the Grimm Brothers and their work is presented to the different audiences.

Get to grips with the Grimm Brothers!

Learn about who they were, what made (and makes) them stand out in their time (and ours). Get an insight into the international context of the Grimms' work and times.

Just what does participant observation mean?

Get an insight into ethnographic methods by learning all about how to observe people with a plan. Draft an observation project of your own.

Time to reflect ...

Write up your project notes in a final report that discusses what you observed and how you can explain this based on what you have learnt before.

ALL INCLUSIVE: TWO LITERARY GIANTS, GLOBAL IMPACT, BOOKS, ENTHUSIASM AND EXCITEMENT. AND ACADEMIA.
