

International Conference

in connection with the annual conference of the „Sektion Biographieforschung“ of the DGS

Exile – Flight – Persecution / Exil – Flucht – Verfolgung

28th to 30th November 2019

Tagungszentrum an der Sternwarte/Convention Centre by the Observatory
(Geismarlandstraße 11, Göttingen)

Contact: exil.flucht.verfolgung@uni-goettingen.de

Conference program

Thursday 28th November 2019

12.30-13.00 Check-in

13.00-13.30 Opening
Maria Pohn-Lauggas & Arne Worm

13.30-14.15 Keynote I: Steve Tonah: The Origins and Consequences of the “Mass Migration” from West Africa to Libya and Europe – A West African Perspective
Chair: Arne Worm

14.15-14.45 Coffee break

14.45 -17.00	Migratory trajectories (English) Chair: Eva Bahl (Großer Seminarraum) Kassoum Dieme & Leonardo Cavalcanti: A biographical and cinematographic look at contemporary migrations from the work and life of Sembène Ousmane Gabriele Rosenthal & Lukas Hofmann: Eritreans – Escaped to Israel – Deported to Rwanda/Uganda	Theoretische und methodologische Reflexionen zur Flucht- und Migrationsforschung (German) Chair: Irimi Siouti (Seminarraum 2) Tina Spies & Olaf Tietje & Elisabeth Tuiider: Postmigrantische Perspektiven in der Biographieforschung Frauke Schacht: „Zum Flüchtling wurde ich erst in Europa.“ Eine re- und dekonstruktive Analyse der Flüchtlingskategorie
--------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

	Lucas Cé Sangalli: Migration courses from the Republic of the Sudan to Germany Fabio Santos: Re-thinking migration from the margins: Migratory trajectories to French Guiana	Verena Hücke: Grenzgänge im Migrationsregime – Sexual refugees in Südafrika Benjamin Etzold & Simone Christ & Markus Rudolf: Transnational figurations of displacement – conceptual and methodological reflections on the role of connectivity and mobility in protracted displacement
--	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

17.00-17.30 Coffee break

17.30-18.15 Keynote II: Roswitha Breckner/Faime Alpagu: Images of flight and migration – Migration and flight in images
Chair: Miriam Schäfer

Starting 18.30 Coming together (wine and snacks)

Friday 29th November 2019

9.30-11.45	Escaping from war in the Middle East (English) Chair: Sevil Çakır-Kılınçoğlu (Großer Seminarraum) Johannes Becker & Hendrik Hinrichsen: Making it to Amman: Exile and forced migration in the Levant Arne Worm: Migration in the context of collective violence and social transformation: Life courses of Syrian refugees in Europe Phil Langer & Aisha-Nusrat Ahmad: Should I stay or should I go? Living in and through traumatic landscape and the psychosocial dynamics of flight	Transgenerationale Erinnerung von Fluchterfahrung (German) Chair: Kristina Meier (Seminarraum 2) Anita Rotter: Familiäre Erinnerungskulturen: Junge Erwachsene mit familialer Migrationsgeschichte erinnern und erzählen Doreen Blume-Peiffer: Familien von Roma aus Ex-Jugoslawien: Zu den transgenerationalen Folgen von Verfolgung, Flucht und Migration Anna Schnitzer: Zwischen Kontinuität und Veränderung: Erinnerungspraktiken in transnationalen Familien mit Fluchterfahrungen Rebecca Mörgen & Peter Rieker: Jugendliche mit Fluchterfahrung – Soziale Vulnerabilität und biografische Innovation
------------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

11.45-12.15 Coffee break

12.15-13.00 Keynote III: Christoph Reinprecht: Sociology of Exile, Sociology in Exile

Chair: Nicole Witte

13.00-14.00 Lunch break

14.00-16.15	Politische Prozesse und ihre biographischen Konsequenzen – Zwischen Ent- und Ermächtigung (German) Chair: Hendrik Hinrichsen (Seminarraum 2) Irini Siouti: Politische Partizipationsprozesse unter Bedingungen von Exil und Migration Martina Schiebel: Deutsch-deutsche Migrationserfahrungen infolge politischer Strafverfolgung: Eine Rekonstruktion der Verwobenheit von Biographien und Öffentlichkeit Hilal Akdeniz: Identität und Zugehörigkeit bei türkischen Geflüchteten nach dem Putschversuch	Experiences and narrations of refugees (English) Chair: Ina Alber-Armenat (Großen Seminarraum) Christien Brinkgreve & Rineke van Daalen: Problems of exclusion and belonging: Experience of refugees Anja Bartel & Catherine Delcroix & Elise Pape: Being a refugee in Strasbourg and Frankfurt am Main – A historical perspective Maria do Carmo dos Santos Gonçalves: “Breaking again”: Narratives of migrants and refugees in Brazil Júlia Vajda & Juli Székely: Memorial places of refuge – Memories of the Glass House in Budapest and the Otto Weidt Workshop in Berlin
-------------	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

16.15-16.45 Coffee break

16.45-18.45	Processes of migration and constructions of belonging (English) Chair: Johannes Becker (Großer Seminarraum) Eva Bahl: Between isolation, self-assertion and the rejection of stigmatizing ‘they-images’: Precarious constructions of belonging of young Moroccans in the Moroccan-Spanish border zone Myrna Sieden: Seeking refuge in relationships – Migration as an escape from domestic violence” Ana Mijić: Biographies in conflict: Creating belonging after forced migration
-------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--

18.45-19.15 Break

19.15-20.00 Keynote IV: Ludger Pries: Émigrés from Hannah Arendt to 2015: Negotiating biographical belongings
Chair: Victoria Taboada Gómez

Starting 20.15 Conference dinner

Saturday 30th November 2019

09.00-10.00 Business meeting of DGS Sektion Biographieforschung

10.00-10.15 Coffee break

10.15-12.30	Migration, visibility and political action (English) Chair: Katharina Teutenberg (Seminarraum 2) Sevil Çakır-Kılınçoğlu: Resistance practices of immigrants: Organizing in exile Victoria Taboada Gómez: Building Localities without a Heimat: A Latin American Woman's Biographical Account of Refuge and Migration in Germany Faime Alpagu: Refugee? Labour migrant? Questioning the definition of "guest worker" from a biographical and visual perspective	Fluchtmigration und Sprache, kollektive Identität, Wir- und Sie-Bilder (German) Chair: Michaela Köttig (Großer Seminarraum) Johannes Becker & Hendrik Hinrichsen: Arabische Dialekte, Panarabismus und Geflüchteten-Altansässigen-Figurationen in Jordanien Stefan Bernhard & Stefan Röhrer: Selbstbestätigung, Frustration oder learning-by-doing – Eine Studie zur Verquickung von Sprachlernen und Lebenswegen bei geflüchteten Syrer*innen in Deutschland Bettina Dausien & Nadja Thoma: Biographisches Erzählen als prekäre Zugehörigkeitsarbeit. Beobachtungen aus einem Projekt mit geflüchteten Jugendlichen
-------------	------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

12.30-13.00 Coffee break

13.00-14.15 Keynote V: Ursula Apitzsch: Antonio Gramsci and the inferno of exile: Exile and prison as a loss of biographical knowledge about the present
Chair: Eva Bahl

14.15 Closing
Gabriele Rosenthal